Defendants

PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO WITHDRAW ERRONEOUSLY FILED DOCUMENT

TO THE COURT:

Plaintiffs, in the above-entitled case, respectfully request this Court to withdraw Document No. 85, titled "Notice of Dismissal," but incorrectly filed as "Motion" on July 12, 2012.

This document should have been filed under the category of “Notices/Notice of Dismissal” but was mistakenly filed under “Motions,” which instigated a motions date. (Plaintiffs note that it did submit a proposed Order in the previous filing, even though one is not required under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41, out of courtesy since some courts do issue such orders.)

Plaintiffs became aware of this ECF filing error on July 19, 2012, and upon learning of their clerical error, Plaintiffs promptly contacted the Court and all parties by email to inform them, and immediately followed up with the clerk of the Southern District of Texas. Pursuant to the Clerk's instructions, Plaintiffs re-filed their Notice of Dismissal under the proper category (See Document No. 87), and now file this Motion.

Wherefore, in light of the foregoing, Plaintiffs respectfully request the Court grant their Motion to Withdraw the document currently on the docket report as Document No. 85.

Respectfully submitted,
